Art Unit: 1755

The applicants' 6/15/06 amendment and response is noted and will be addressed after an election is made from the restriction requirement below. Note that restriction is proper even at this point in prosecution (See MPEP 811 below). It is also noted that rejoinder is possible of Groups I and II but it requires the selection of the product claim of Group I and upon a ~~finding~~^{finding} of allowance of Group I, the scope of the non-elected process claims of Group II must be of the same exact scope as the allowed claims of Group I.

811 [R-3] Time for Making Requirement

37 CFR 1.142(a), second sentence, indicates that a restriction requirement "will normally be made before any action upon the merits; however, it may be made at any time before final action. This means the examiner should make a proper requirement as early as possible in the prosecution, in the first action if possible, otherwise, as soon as the need for a proper requirement develops.

Before making a restriction requirement after the first action on the merits, the examiner will consider whether there will be a serious burden if restriction is not required. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-5, and 12-16, drawn to luster color material/coating composition, classified in class 106, subclass 415.
- II. Claims 6-11, drawn to a method of producing a metal luster material, classified in class 427, subclass 216+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the product of claim 1 can be made by a materially different process such as electroless plating.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification and search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
